Plan and care for the Osage Orange for feacing. It makes the best fence of the day when cultured under our system of training. We plant, replant, care for, and plash down, with proper trimming for four years, at which time we give over to the landholder a perfect fence at the low cost

This is not, however, the only advantage to be resorted to then why not bring to be ar such skill and experience as shall at once decide the question of success? With us, the day of experiments, involving the loss of both time and money, is past. We know and apply the proper principles in constructing Hedges, rendering them both practical and ornamental to any farm or lot. Farmers, you are on the verge of a great necessity, for which netter you not your children are provided. In the near future, to have fences you must have hedges. We have contracted several hundred rods in this County to Piash, some of which have been pronounced worthless, and we shall make very good fences out of them, which we would be pleased to have all examine as a sample of the system of Piashing.

We refer to the following well known gentlemen:

How COLUMBUS BELANO, Ex-Secretary of Interior: MILTON BARNES, Secretary of State; WESLEY YOUNG, Columbus, O.; JAMES REYNOLDS, WM. BERGIN, Ravenna; J. N. STRATTON, Kent; I. F. WILCOX, Streetsboro'; FRED, REDINGER, Randolph.

To the Managers of the Portage County Hedge Co.:

The Hedge you Plashed for me now exceeds my expectations. Your plan, so far as I can see cannot be improved upon. Mine is so close and compact that I have no animal small enough to pass through it. It forms a network as beautiful as it is secure. Your work has dispelled whatever doubt I may have entertained regarding Hedge fences.

This is to certify that we have examined the Hedge Plashed and Wired, according to the plans now used by the Portage County Heige Company, and confess we were surprised at the good results obtained. It makes the Hedge so thick and dense that stock of no kind can get through it. The wires are harmless. The Hedge is ornamental, and in every way desirable. We would recommend it to all farmers.
